RULES

Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d)2, 4

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015(c) and 9007.....14

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the “GUC Trust”), formed by the above-captioned debtors (collectively, the “Debtors”) in connection with the Debtors’ Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan, dated March 18, 2011 (as may be amended, supplemented, or modified from time to time, the “Plan”), respectfully represents:

BY THIS OBJECTION, THE DEBTORS AND THE GUC TRUST DO NOT SEEK TO AFFECT THE RIGHTS OF THE CLAIMANTS TO CONTINUE RECEIVING PENSION BENEFITS FROM THEIR RESPECTIVE DEFINED BENEFIT PLANS.

Relief Requested

1. The GUC Trust files this 235th omnibus objection (the “235th Omnibus Objection to Claims”)¹ pursuant to section 502(b) of title 11, United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 3007(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and this Court’s order approving procedures for the filing of omnibus objections to proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases (the “Procedures Order”) (ECF No. 4180), seeking entry of an order disallowing and expunging from the claims register certain claims listed on Exhibit “A” annexed hereto, filed by retired and former salaried, executive, or hourly employees (the “Former Employees”).²

² The GUC Trust reserves all of its rights to object on any other basis to any Claims as to which the Court does not grant the relief requested herein.

2. The proofs of claim identified on Exhibit “A” hereto filed by the Former Employees (the “Claims”) include alleged liability for both (i) a possible future reduction or elimination of accrued pension benefits (the “Pension Claims”) under either the General Motors Retirement Program for Salaried Employees in the United States (the “Salaried Plan”) or the General Motors Hourly-Rate Pension Plan (the “Hourly Plan,” and together with the Salaried Plan, the “Pension Plans”); and (ii) medical, dental, vision, life insurance, short term disability, long term disability, tuition assistance, and extended care coverage, or a combination thereof (the “Welfare Benefits Claims”), offered under the following plans sponsored by the Debtors prior to the Commencement Date (as defined below): the General Motors Salaried Health Care Program, the General Motors Life and Disability Benefits Program for Salaried Employees, and the Tuition Assistance Program for Salaried Employees in the United States (collectively, the “Salaried Benefit Plans”). The Claims also assert liability for supplemental life insurance and personal liability insurance under the following plans sponsored by the Debtors prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases: the General Motors Supplemental Life Benefits Program for Executive Employees and the Personal Umbrella Liability Insurance Program (together with the Salaried Benefit Plans, the “Benefit Plans,” and the benefits provided under the Benefit Plans, the “Welfare Benefits”).

3. Representatives of the GUC Trust have examined the Claims and have determined that they are not liabilities of MLC, the other Debtors, or the GUC Trust, because (i) with respect to the Pension Claims, they are liabilities of specific defined benefits pension plans that are legally separate from the Debtors, and therefore do not constitute liabilities of the Debtors or the GUC Trust, and (ii) with respect to the Welfare Benefits Claims, they are amounts that either (a) have been assumed by General Motors LLC (“New GM”) pursuant to the terms of that certain Amended and Restated Master Sale and Purchase Agreement (the “Master Purchase Agreement”), dated as of June 26, 2009, by and among General Motors Corporation, Saturn LLC, Saturn Distribution Corporation, Chevrolet-Saturn of Harlem, Inc., and New GM, or (b) are related to unvested benefits that have been amended or terminated and, as described herein, are not the responsibility of the Debtors or the GUC Trust and, therefore, should be disallowed and expunged from the claims register.

Jurisdiction

4. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Background

5. On June 1, 2009 (the “Commencement Date”), Motors Liquidation Company (f/k/a General Motors Corporation) (“MLC”), MLCS, LLC (f/k/a Saturn, LLC), MLCS Distribution Corporation (f/k/a Saturn Distribution Corporation), and MLC of Harlem, Inc. (f/k/a Chevrolet-Saturn of Harlem, Inc.) (collectively, the “Initial Debtors”) commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, and on October 9, 2009, Remediation and Liability Management Company, Inc. and Environmental Corporate Remediation Company, (the “REALM/ENCORE Debtors”) commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, which cases are jointly administered under Case Number 09-50026 (REG). On September 15, 2009, the Initial Debtors filed their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs, which were amended on October 4, 2009. On October 15, 2009, the REALM/ENCORE Debtors filed their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs.

6. On September 16, 2009, this Court entered an order (ECF No. 4079) establishing November 30, 2009 as the deadline for each person or entity to file a proof of claim in the Initial Debtors' cases, including governmental units. On December 2, 2009, this Court entered an order (ECF No. 4586) establishing February 1, 2010 as the deadline for each person or entity to file a proof of claim in the REALM/ENCORE Debtors' cases (except governmental units, as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code, for which the Court established April 16, 2010 as the deadline to file proofs of claim).

7. On October 6, 2009, this Court entered the Procedures Order, which, inter alia, authorizes "the Debtors, and other parties in interest" to file omnibus objections to 100 claims at a time, under various grounds, including those set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d) and certain additional grounds set forth in the Procedures Order. The Procedures Order specifically authorizes parties in interest to file omnibus objections to claims that are "objectionable under section 502(e)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code." (Procedures Order at 2.)

8. On March 29, 2011, this Court entered an order confirming the Plan (ECF No. 9941). Section 6.2 of the Plan provides for the creation of the GUC Trust to administer certain responsibilities after the Effective Date (as defined in the Plan), including, resolving outstanding Disputed General Unsecured Claims (as defined in the Plan). All conditions to the occurrence of the Effective Date were met or waived on March 31, 2011, thereby making the Plan effective as of that date.

The Pension Plans Have Been Assumed
By New GM And Pensions Continue to Be Paid

9. Under the Master Purchase Agreement, New GM assumed sponsorship, in place of the Debtors, of both the Salaried Plan and the Hourly Plan, and therefore, the Pension Plans are no longer the responsibility of the Debtors or the GUC Trust.

10. In the highly unlikely event of a future Pension Plan termination, New GM would have responsibility for funding shortfalls in the Plan and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, a U.S. Government agency (the “PBGC”) would have the liability for certain pension payments. Neither the Debtors nor the GUC Trust would have any responsibility to Pension Plan beneficiaries in the unlikely event of a future Pension Plan termination. The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”) comprehensively regulates the design, administration, funding, and termination of employer-provided pension benefits programs. The Pension Plans are both tax-qualified, single-employer defined benefit pension plans subject to the plan termination insurance provisions of Title IV of ERISA.

11. Accordingly, the Former Employees do not have a direct claim against the Debtors or the GUC Trust as asserted in the Pension Claims. Moreover, the Debtors and the GUC Trust have no further obligation with respect to the Salaried Plan or the Hourly Plan by reason of New GM’s assumption of such Plans as described above. Further, no Former Employee has submitted any supporting documentation evidencing a cessation of payments from the Pension Plans, where such payments are due.

The Welfare Benefits Claims

12. The Claims also assert liability arising out of either (a) the failure to provide certain accrued Welfare Benefits required to be provided pursuant to the terms of the applicable Benefit Plan then in effect (the “Accrued Benefits Claims”), or (b) the reduction or elimination of Welfare Benefits prior to the Commencement Date (the “Benefit Modification Claims”), or a combination thereof.

(A) Accrued Benefits Claims Have Been Assumed by New GM

13. On July 10, 2009 (the “Closing Date”), New GM completed its purchase of substantially all of the Debtors’ assets in accordance with the Master Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to Section 6.17(e) of the Master Purchase Agreement (Assumption of Certain Parent Employee Benefit Plans and Policies), New GM assumed certain employee benefit plans specified in a disclosure schedule, i.e., the “Assumed Plans,” and the Benefit Plans were included on that schedule. The Master Purchase Agreement provides, at Section 6.17(e):

As of the Closing Date, Purchaser or one of its Affiliates shall assume (i) the Parent Employee Benefit Plans and Policies set forth on Section 6.17(e) of the Sellers’ Disclosure Schedule as modified thereon, and all assets, trusts, insurance policies and other Contracts relating thereto, except for any that do not comply in all respects with TARP or as otherwise provided in Section 6.17(h) and (ii) all employee benefit plans, programs, policies, agreements or arrangements (whether written or oral) in which Employees who are covered by the UAW Collective Bargaining Agreement participate and all assets, trusts, insurance and other Contracts relating thereto (the “Assumed Plans”), for the benefit of the Transferred Employees and Sellers and Purchaser shall cooperate with each other to take all actions and execute and deliver all documents and furnish all notices necessary to establish Purchaser or one of its Affiliates as the sponsor of such Assumed Plans including all assets, trusts, insurance policies and other Contracts relating thereto. Other than with respect to any Employee who was or is covered by the UAW Collective Bargaining Agreement, Purchaser shall have no Liability with respect to any modifications or changes to Benefit Plans contemplated by Section 6.17(e) of the Sellers’ Disclosure Schedule, or changes made by Parent prior to the Closing Date, and Purchaser shall not assume any Liability with respect to any such decisions or actions related thereto, and Purchaser shall only assume the Liabilities for benefits provided pursuant to the written terms and conditions of the Assumed Plan as of the Closing Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the assumption of the Assumed Plans is subject to Purchaser taking all necessary action, including reduction of benefits, to ensure that the Assumed Plans comply in all respects with TARP. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the terms of any Collective Bargaining Agreement to which Purchaser or one of its Affiliates is a party, Purchaser and its Affiliates may, in its sole discretion, amend, suspend or terminate any such Assumed Plan at any time in accordance with its terms.

(emphasis added). As a result, New GM assumed the Accrued Benefits Claims to the extent required to be provided under the terms of the applicable Benefit Plan as of the Closing Date (as such term is defined in the Master Purchase Agreement), including responsibility for all claims incurred prior to the Closing Date and properly payable pursuant to the terms of the applicable

Benefit Plan in effect when such claims were incurred. Further, Paragraph 26 of the Order approving the Master Purchase Agreement [Docket No. 2968] provides that the Debtors (and therefore, the GUC Trust) shall have no further liability with respect to Assumed Liabilities:

Except as provided in the [Master Purchase Agreement] or this Order, after the Closing, the Debtors and their estates shall have no further liabilities or obligations with respect to any Assumed Liabilities other than certain Cure Amounts as provided in the [Master Purchase Agreement], and all holders of such claims are forever barred and estopped from asserting such claims against the Debtors, their successors or assigns, and their estates.

Therefore, neither the Debtors nor the GUC Trust have any liability with respect to the Accrued Benefits Claims. Any valid claims should be submitted to New GM to be paid in the ordinary course.

(B) Benefit Modification Claims Should Be Disallowed
As Debtors Had Right to Amend or Terminate Each Benefit Plan

14. New GM did not assume any liability for Welfare Benefits to the extent that they were validly reduced or eliminated prior to the Closing Date and contracted only to assume liability for Welfare Benefits at the level to which they had been modified prior to the Closing Date. MLC's right to amend or terminate each Benefit Plan was specifically reserved in the applicable plan document such that benefits under each Benefit Plan were not vested and could be reduced or eliminated without continuing liability. Accordingly, although certain of the Benefit Modification Claims were not assumed by New GM, they are not valid claims and must be disallowed.

15. ERISA does not require any vesting of welfare benefits, and therefore, such benefits may be forfeited in accordance with the terms of the related welfare benefits plan. Welfare benefit plans of the type at issue in the Welfare Benefits Claims are specifically excluded from the vesting requirements of ERISA. 29 U.S.C. § 1051(1); see Moore v. Metro. Life Ins. Co.,

856 F.2d 488, 491 (2d Cir. 1988); Sprague v. Gen. Motors Corp., 133 F.3d 388, 400 (6th Cir. 1998).³ As to the consideration of vested benefits, the Sixth Circuit, in Sprague, stated:

To vest benefits is to render them forever unalterable. Because vesting of welfare plan benefits is not required by law, an employer's commitment to vest such benefits is not to be inferred lightly; the intent to vest "must be found in the plan documents and must be stated in clear and express language.

133 F.3d at 400 (citing Wise v. El Paso Natural Gas Co., 986 F.2d 929, 937 (5th Cir. 1993).

16. In dealing with claims similar to the Welfare Benefits Claims, the Sixth Circuit has noted that welfare plans such as the Benefit Plans are specifically exempted from vesting requirements to which pension plans are subject under ERISA, and accordingly, employers such as MLC "are generally free under ERISA, for any reason at any time, to adopt, modify or terminate welfare plans." Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongen, 514 U.S. 73, 78 (1995) (citing Adams v. Avondale Indus., Inc., 905 F.2d 943, 947 (6th Cir. 1990)). The Sixth Circuit recognized that once benefits are vested, they are rendered forever unalterable:

Because vesting of welfare plan benefits is not required by law, an employer's commitment to vest such benefits is not to be inferred lightly; the intent to vest "must be found in the plan documents and must be stated in clear and express language.

³ As the Second Circuit noted in Moore, Congress explicitly rejected the concept of automatic vesting for medical benefits for good policy reasons:

With regard to an employer's right to change medical plans, Congress evidenced its recognition of the need for flexibility in rejecting the automatic vesting of welfare plans. Automatic vesting was rejected because the costs of such plans are subject to fluctuating and unpredictable variables. Actuarial decisions concerning fixed annuities are based on fairly stable data, and vesting is appropriate. In contrast, medical insurance must take account of inflation, changes in medical practice and technology, and increases in the costs of treatment independent of inflation. These unstable variables prevent accurate predictions of future needs and costs. While these plaintiffs would be helped by a decision in their favor, such a ruling would not only fly in the face of ERISA's plain language but would also decrease protection for future employees and retirees. 856 F.2d at 492.

Sprague, 133 F.3d at 400. Thus, the Former Employees bear the burden of showing that MLC intended to vest benefits provided by the Benefits Plans, and the Welfare Benefits Claims do not discharge this burden, as none of the Claims provide any support for the contention that the Former Employees enjoy vested rights to benefits.

17. ERISA does not require that welfare benefits be vested, and no contractual right to vesting has been created under the terms of any Benefit Plan or any operative documents related thereto. The Debtors properly reserved their right to amend or terminate Welfare Benefits under the terms of the Benefit Plan documents and related plan documents (including summary plan descriptions), and therefore, the Benefit Plan documents do not create any contractual rights to the Welfare Benefits. In addition, the Debtors reserved their right to amend or terminate the Welfare Benefits under various communications to employees, such as in retirement and termination offer agreements. Further, the Welfare Benefits Claims provide no support showing contractual rights contradicting the Debtors' common practice of advising welfare plan participants of the Debtors' right to amend or terminate the Welfare Benefits at any time.

18. By way of example, the first section of the plan document summary of the Health Care Program, dated January 1, 2001, states:

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Program in whole or in part, at any time, by action of its Board of Directors or other committee expressly authorized by the Board to take such action. No enrollee described in this Program may be deemed to have any vested right to continued coverage under any or all of the provisions of the Program.

The Summary Plan Description of the Health Care Program, as set forth in the benefits handbook for salaried retirees, states:

General Motors Corporation reserves the right to amend, change, or terminate the Plans and Programs described in this booklet. The Plans and Programs can be amended only in writing by an appropriate committee or individual as expressly authorized by the Board of Directors. No other oral or written statements can change the terms of a benefit Plan or Program.

The plan document for the General Motors Supplemental Life Benefits Program for Executive Employees, effective January 1, 2006, states at section 3.4(a):

The Company, as the Program Administrator, shall be responsible for the administration of the Program. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Program in whole or in part, at any time by action of its Board of Directors or other individual or committee expressly authorized by the Board to take such action. The benefits available to Employees are determined solely by the terms of the Program. Absent an express delegation of authority from the Board of Directors, no one has the authority to commit the Company to any benefit or benefit provisions not provided for under the terms of the Program.

The summary plan description of the Personal Liability Insurance Program, dated February 2008, reads:

The insurance described briefly herein is subject to the detailed terms and conditions of General Motors Personal Umbrella Liability Insurance (PULI) Program as now constituted or hereafter modified or supplemented and the contracts issued pursuant thereto, which shall govern with respect to all matters referred to in this brochure. General Motors reserves the right to modify, revoke, suspend, terminate, or change the Program, in whole or in part, at any time, except as may be limited by the provisions of the contract, or its supplements, and by the provisions of any applicable federal or state laws.

19. On the basis of such language, the Sixth Circuit in Sprague reviewed the plan documents and summary plan descriptions of certain of the Salaried Benefit Plans and found that the Salaried Benefit Plans explicitly permit GM to unilaterally amend or terminate the Welfare Benefits provided under such plans. 133 F.3d at 400.⁴

20. In fact, several of the Welfare Benefits Claims include supporting agreements that clearly reserve the Debtors' rights to amend or terminate the Benefit Plans offered under such retirement offer agreements. Indeed, under the terms of retirement most offer letters to employees, the language is as follows:

This summary presents general information only. Any reference to the payment of benefits is conditioned upon your eligibility to receive them. Each of these programs has its own terms and conditions which in all respects control the benefits provided. General Motors Corporation reserves the right to amend, change or terminate programs described herein.⁵

21. As described above, the Debtors have expressly reserved the contractual right to terminate or otherwise modify the Welfare Benefits. Section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor to continue to pay "retiree benefits" under certain circumstances. Courts outside of this Circuit have determined that section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to benefit plans under which the plan sponsor reserves a right to amend or terminate such plans or benefits thereunder. See In re Doskicil Cos., 130 B.R. 870 (Bankr. D. Kan. 1991). While case law exists holding to the contrary outside of the Second Circuit,⁶ recently, in In re Delphi Corp., Ch. 11 Case No. 05-44481 (RDD) 2009 Bankr. LEXIS 576 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 10, 2009), Bankruptcy Judge Drain reviewed and agreed with the rationale of Doskicil. Judge Drain found that "if, in fact, the debtors have the unilateral right to modify a health or welfare plan, that modifiable plan is the plan that is to be maintained . . . with the debtors' pre-bankruptcy rights not amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Program in whole or in part, at any time, by action of its Board of Directors.' Your Benefits in Retirement (1985)." 133 F.3d at 400.

⁶ See IUE-CWA v. Visteon Corp. (In re Visteon Corp.), 612 F.3d 210 (3d Cir. 2010) (section 1114 applies even when sponsor reserved right to amend or terminate plan).

being abrogated by the requirements of Section 1114.” Id. at *19.⁷ Consequently, Doskicil is persuasive and should be followed, and section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code should not be construed to provide the Former Employees with more rights than they would have in a non-bankruptcy context.

22. Because (i) ERISA recognizes that employers are free to amend or terminate welfare benefits, (ii) no contrary contractual rights to vested welfare benefits has been established by the Former Employees,⁸ and (iii) section 1114 does not apply to the Welfare Benefits Claims in this context, neither the Debtors nor the GUC Trust have any liability for the Benefit Modification Claims.

The Debtors and the GUC Trust
Have No Liability for the Claims

23. Because (i) New GM assumed the Pension Plans and pension payments which, to the best of the Debtors’ knowledge, have continued uninterrupted, (ii) New GM assumed the Benefit Plans as they existed on the Commencement Date and continues to provide Welfare Benefits as modified prior to their assumption by New GM, and (iii) the Debtors otherwise had a right to amend or terminate the Welfare Benefits prior to the Commencement Date without further liability, and in all relevant instances did so, the Debtors and the GUC Trust have no liability for the Claims.

⁷ Although Judge Drain agreed with the rationale of Doskicil and its related progeny, for reasons not pertinent to the cases at bar, he approved the appointment of a retirees committee for the limited purpose of determining whether there were any retirees holding vested benefits and restricted the costs of the retirees committee to $200,000.

⁸ Indeed, the GUC Trust notes the rationale for the amount of the Claims is either not supported in the applicable proof of claim, or based on an estimate of the lifetime loss due to the reduction or elimination of benefits or the value of the benefit that is alleged not to have been paid.

The Relief Requested Should Be Approved by the Court

24. A filed proof of claim is “deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). If an objection refuting at least one of the claim’s essential allegations is asserted, the claimant has the burden to demonstrate the validity of the claim. See In re Oneida, Ltd., 400 B.R. 384, 389 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009), aff’d, No. 09 Civ. 2229, 2010 WL 234827 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 22, 2010); In re Adelphia Commc’ns Corp., No. 02-41729, 2007 Bankr. LEXIS 660, at *15 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 20, 2007); In re Rockefeller Ctr. Props., 272 B.R. 524, 539 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2000).

25. Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a claim may not be allowed to the extent that “such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1). As described herein, the Debtors and the GUC Trust have reviewed the Master Purchase Agreement and compared their books and records with the proofs of claim identified on Exhibit “A” and have determined that the Claims are not the responsibility of MLC, the other Debtors, or the GUC Trust, having been assumed by New GM as described above, or amended or terminated as permitted. To avoid the possibility of multiple recoveries by the same claimant, or recoveries where no recovery is due, the Debtors and the GUC Trust request that the Court disallow and expunge the Claims in their entirety.

Notice

26. Notice of this 235th Omnibus Objection to Claims has been provided to each claimant listed on Exhibit “A” and parties in interest in accordance with the Sixth Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015(c) and 9007 Establishing Notice and Case Management Procedures, dated May 5, 2011 (ECF No. 10183). The GUC Trust submits that such notice is sufficient and no other or further notice need be provided.

27. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the GUC Trust to this or any other Court.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE the GUC Trust respectfully requests entry of an order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just.
